

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 22

"Don't stay long."—"Don't stay long, husband," said a young wife one evening, tenderly, in my presence, as her husband was preparing to go out. The words themselves were insignificant, but the look of melting fondness that accompanied them spoke volumes. It told the whole vast depths of a woman's love—her happiness when the light of his smile, the source of all her joy, beamed brightly upon her.

"Don't stay long, husband!" and I fancied I saw the loving, gentle, tender wife sitting alone and anxiously counting the moments of her husband's absence, every few minutes running to the door to see if he was in sight, and finding that he was not, I imagine I heard her exclaiming in disappointed tones: "Not yet returned. What can keep him?" and again I thought I could see the young wife rocking herself nervously in the great arm-chair, and weeping as the "lord and master" prolongs his stay to an unusual and wearisome length of time.

Oh, you that have wives who say "don't stay long" when you go forth, think of them kindly when you are mingling in the busy haunts of life, and try, just a little, to make their homes and hearts happy, for they are gems too seldom found, and when lost too seldom replaced. You cannot find amid the pleasures of the world the peace and joy of a quiet home, blessed with such a woman's presence will afford. "Don't stay long, husband!" and the look of the young wife seemed to say, "for here, in your own sweet home is a loving heart whose smiles are hushed when you are absent. Here is a soft breast for you to lay your head upon, and here are pure lips, unsouled by sin, that will pay you with kisses for coming back so soon. Think of it, men, when your wives say to you, 'Don't stay long, husband!'"

MARKET GARDEN LOTS FOR SALE.

Will be offered for sale, on TUESDAY, June 11th, 1872, or the next fair day, at 10 o'clock, FOUR HUNDRED ACRES OF LAND, in lots of about twenty acres, situated about 25 miles from the Long Bridge in Alexandria co., Va., close to the Columbia Turnpike, and near the Arlington Post Office. It is bounded on the one side by the Arlington farm, and on the other by the road leading to Ball's Cross Roads, from the turnpike, beginning at Mr. Harvey Bailey's, at which place the sale will commence, and must be continued from day to day. The land is such as is required for early market produce, and with the permanent new long bridge and a good road, it is as near market as can be desirable; it is also convenient to Georgetown. No situation could be preferred. There are some very fine building sites of commanding view.

Terms: One-fourth cash; the balance in equal instalments in one, two and three years, with interest from the day of sale, payable every six months—to be secured by notes and a deed of trust upon the land. State and county taxes for this year to be paid by the purchaser, and stamps and conveyancing at his cost. A plat of the lots will be seen at the sale.
